1. In addition to information contained reftel, now reconfirmed by Justice, point should be made that settlement of this case does not affect other pending charges in ~~xxxxxx~~ other courts - state or federal - or possible future indictments on new charges.

2. As initial law enforcement result of July 11 settlement, Kahane's lawyer informed USG officials of whereabouts 197 sticks dynamite off Palisades Parkway which is one route between JDL training camp and NYC. Though dynamite had in meantime been discovered by park employee, location fitted telephone description. Explosives now under USG analysis for possible links with sticks used in bombs disarmed at Soviet's Glen Cove estate June 22 and Amto's April 22. Such links, if established, could lead to new charges.

3. Press reports, though numerous, only report that caller identified self as JDL ~~MEM~~ member. Our sources, however, confirm caller to have been a Kahane attorney Barry Slotnik - and confirm linkage between settlement conditions and USG's recovery of explosives.

4. On July 12 person identifying self as JDL ~~KBE~~ member called U.S. Attorney's Office in ~~BEE~~ Brooklyn and suggested search of certain locker at East Side Airlines Terminal. Search produced sizable quantity of explosive powder and some electric blasting caps.

5. USG search of training camp under court order will be scheduled for Wednesday. We will keep you advised of other results of settlement as they occur.

6. At press conference July 12 Kahane reportedly threatened intensified harassment of Soviets to ~~begin~~ begin July 13.
